ABOUT

Lara Grogan was born on 30 January 2004 in Luxembourg. She speaks 5 languages, English being her mother tongue. Inspired by the Beatles, she began writing her own songs at age 11. She has been playing piano from the age of 9 and guitar from the age of 11.

When she was 13 and 14, Lara participated in the Screaming Fields Song Contest organised by the Rocklab and the songs she submitted were rated among the top 5 songs by the jury on both occasions. At the ages of 15 and 17, she participated in the Screaming Fields Festival and won several prizes: the Booker's Choice from the National Youth Service (SNJ) in 2019, the Bookers Choice from the Rotondes in 2021, the Bookers Choice from Abbaye Neimenster in 2021 and the Songwriter Package from the Grund Club in 2021.

In February 2022 she performed at the Remix Opening of Esch 2022 at the Rockhal as part of the Future Frequencies Project under the direction of Matthew Herbert (UK) and Frank Wiedemann (Germany). At this concert she sang her song 'City and its People' which she wrote exclusively for the Opening of Esch 2022.

Lara Grogan was a Semi-Finalist in the Singer-Songwriter category of the UK Songwriting Contest 2023 in London.

In summer 2023, Lara participated in the International UK Songwriting Contest competition (UKSC) and her song 'The Sculptor' was awarded a Semi-Finalist position. The UK Songwriting Contest is one of the world's longest running and most successful international songwriting events that was launched in London in 2002.
