ABOUT

Our mission aims at helping you become conscious of the many abilities that you have within you, to inspire you, and whisper you a glimpse of confidence to realize your wildest dream projects. As Victor Hugo once said, utopia is the reality of tomorrow.

Evol-ution goal is to contribute to your connection with the beauty of your nature, which means as Human Being, made of love, sharing and kindness towards yourself and others.

Our event « BE THE BEST YOU » entitled this mission and we hope from the deep side of our heart that you will connect as energy and words coming from the heart go to the heart.

EVOLUTION

BE THE BEST VERSION OF YOU

Chapter II

SPEAKERS

Emmanuel N. Imana "The power of the heart"

Born in Rwanda, Emmanuel grew up in Belgium. He used to work in the fund industry before leaving his job and follow the path of his heart. He always wanted to help people and have an impact on the world. He discovered how to connect with people through the power of the heart. He is a transformational coach who helps you become conscious of the best version of yourself through self-love. "The way you love yourself is a reflection of your outside world. Evolve through a whisper from within to become the best version of you."

Assia Jarmouni "The power of connecting people"

Assia is from Morocco and grew up in Belgium. She works in funds industry. Her passion is to connect people to others and to themselves, to spread love and happiness all over the world because "Love is all we really need to be happy. She volunteers at Radio Ara Luxembourg where she broadcasts her own radio show program "Spirit of Africa" a blend of music, culture and most important thing a 100% human experience.

Edwige Mutesi "The power of organisation"

Born in Rwanda, Edwige grew up in Belgium. With experience in Human Resources and Project Management, Edwige naturally organises and structures everything in collaboration with people. It's such a satisfaction for her to make things happen, be part of it and see the final result. Her favorite quote for the moment : "Told you so. Sincerely, your intuition."

Jay Witlox "The power of magic"

Jay was born and grew up in Luxembourg. After 28 years in banking business, he decided to focus more on his passion for magic which had been initiated to him by his grandfather. Jay fully lives his passion on stage. As an illusionist he loves to entertain his audience, make them dream by combining charm, humor and romance. His talent and professionalism have conducted him all over the world through Luxembourg, France, Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands, England, Nigeria, India, Dubai and USA.

Neha Bhandari "The power of being yourself"

Neha is from India. After working in the Apparel Retail Industry for Women Wear Neha moved to Arizona, USA. In the United States, she studied Fashion Styling and gained further knowledge and experience to move forward with her dream. It was in her next move to Luxembourg that Neha rolled out her dream and put herself on the map in the fashion industry for Personal Styling & Image Consultancy as a savvy business woman with the launch of "StylizedU" her Personal Styling Venture. "Be yourself; everyone else is already taken."

Maty Soul "The power of authenticity"

Maty is from France. She's an artist, singer/songwriter, among many other passions. Her focus when she started her career was to use music as a weapon to spread Love and Unity. Throughout her path she always chose integrity and made what really gave her joy as the most important thing. Music is only one of her tools to heal herself and others. Now, she started to help people finding how to connect to who they really are, to their heart, to their authenticity. "We came here to express our true selves fully."

Sacha Baret "The power of a shining soul"

From France, MR Sacha is singer/songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist. The least we can say is that he is a complete artist, but the most impressive is that he is convincing in all these areas! We willingly allows to be caressed by the warm freshness of sparkling melodies of this new blending of soul voice, love, African roots and sophisticated arrangements of funk, blues, latin and jazz. There is obviously the "sun in his soul" and he is about to shine on and within you if you let him. We strongly advise you to ;-) !

MUSICIANS

Gospel Generation Luxembourg & African River "The power of African Beat"

Gospel Generation Lux is a choir created in Luxembourg in 2007 whose members are passionate and eager to spread a message of love, joy and peace. They believe that their spiritual songs are the remedy to heal the pain that our society is facing. Two of the main members, Alexis Kabamba and Hazaël Ouedraogo have shaped the African River group that fuses different styles incorporating a mix of all music of the Modern World and African melodies.

Karol Kushka "The power of passion"

Born in Poland and on the go since Karol is a life-curious probationer. He believes everyone is out there to share experiences with and learn from. With whatever he undertakes he works on transition from "I'm great" to "We're great." He advocates some randomness and uncertainty in life as a way to grow - Trial and error is freedom.

Baye Fall Family "The power of mind and heart connection"

From Senegal, Baye Fall Family shakes and awakes hearts through African Blues Melodies. In 2013, Baye Fall Family was created in order to awaken the connection of the mind and heart through their magical voice. Their melodies awaken feelings that cannot be described in words. "When the mind is connected to the heart, human beings live to their full potential."

OTHER KEY PLAYER

Rémi Walle "The power of confluence"

Rémi was born and grew up in Luxembourg. The idea of putting richness of diverse cultures together in order to establish a new paradigm of living was always within him. He created a Facebook group "Superpower Luxembourg" to bring people together, appreciate beauty, and listen to each other story. He also has a vivid interest in photography which can help to appreciate life's diverse experiences and cultures.
